The Showa University Journal of Medical Sciences is designed to contribute to the advancement and diffusion of knowledge in all branches of medical sciences. The Journal publishes original articles, reviews, lectures and case reports in the field of medical sciences including dentistry, pharmaceutical sciences, nursing & rehabilitation sciences and arts & sciences.

General Information

1. The Journal is designed to afford an opportunity for members of the Showa University Society to publish. Contributions from other countries are also welcomed.
2. The Journal will publish only papers that have been reviewed and accepted by the Editorial Board and Editor-in-Chief.
3. Manuscripts must not have appeared in another journal, and should be written in English in as clear and concise a manner as possible.
4. Manuscripts that reveal a lack of proper, ethical consideration for human subjects or experimental animals will not be accepted.
5. The Journal will be published quarterly.
6. Method of submitting a manuscript: Bring the digital file or attach it to an email to the Showa University Society. Please make note of the reply from the office if submitted by email.

    The Showa University Journal of Medical Sciences Editorial Office
    c/o The Showa University Society, Showa University,
    Telephone 03–3784–8074 (+81–3–3784–8074)
    Facsimile 03–3784–7444 (+81–3–3784–7444)
    E-mail : gakushikai@ofc.showa-u.ac.jp

Instructions for Authors

Manuscripts: Manuscripts must be A4 paper with the page number at the lower middle of each page, and 14 point fonts should be used with wide margins and double spacing. Manuscripts should be arranged in the following order; title page (page number: 1), abstract, key words, introduction, materials (or subjects) and methods, results, discussion, acknowledgments (or conflict of interest disclosure), references, tables, legends for figures, and figures.

Title page: The title page should contain (1) the complete title of the article, which should be concise but informative; (2) name(s) of all author(s); (3) name(s) and address(es) of their institutions and department(s) or affiliation; (4) name and address of corresponding author; (5) a running title not exceeding 50 letters and spaces (identified in parentheses).

Abstract: An abstract of less than 280 words should be intelligible to the reader, and be presented in a concise form including the purpose, methods, findings and conclusions.
Key words: Up to five words suitable for indexing should be written at the bottom of the abstract page.

Length of manuscript: Original articles, short communications and case reports should be as concise as full documentation allows. They should rarely exceed 15 printed pages, though up to 20 pages will be permitted for invited reviews.

Nomenclature: Binominal nomenclature should be used for animals, plants and microorganisms, with names in italics. Generic names should be used for drugs. Abbreviations not in common use should be avoided as far as possible; if used, they should be spelled out on the first occurrence with the abbreviated form shown in parentheses.

Units of measurement: CGS system should be used without a period, thus m, mm, µm, nm, l, ml, µl, kg, g, mg, µg, mg/dl, ppm, °C, Bq, Gy, sec, min, hr.

Tables: Short informative titles should be written at the top of the table. Each table must fit within a single printed page.

Figures: Letters, lines, arrows, etc. should be sized appropriately and placed directly on figures. Care should be taken with readability and changes in aspect ratio for figures not of original size. The magnification should be indicated for photomicrographs. The place for insertion of each figure or table should be indicated in red in the margin of the main text.

Conflict of interest disclosure: Each author who is listed on the title page should declare any financial support or relationships that may pause conflict of interest.

References: All references should be numbered according to the order in which they are first referred. Consecutive numbers in parenthesis should be used to indicate the references in the main text, e.g. (1, 2). Up to 30 references may be submitted for original articles, short communications or case reports. Up to 50 references may be submitted for review articles. References should be listed sequentially after the main text, according to the following example formats:

Journal article
Author(s). Article title. Abbreviated title of the journal according to Index Medicus. Year of publication; Volume: First and last page numbers.

More than three authors: List the first three authors followed by et al. Article not in English: Follow with the language in parentheses.

Entire Book
Author(s)/editor(s). Title. Edition. Place of publication: Publisher; Year of publication.
Chapter in a book
Author(s). Article title. In Editor(s). Book title. Edition. Place of publication: Publisher; Year of Publication. First and last page numbers.

Electronic material
Author(s). Article title. Journal title (Type of medium). Year of publication;Volume:First and last page numbers (or Date of Publication). (Date of Citation) Availability:

Financial obligation: Authors must pay for publication at the rate of 2,000 yen per page, except in the case of invited articles. The full costs of photographic reproductions, figures, tables and tracings, as well as of papers accepted for rapid publication, must be borne by the authors except for invited authors. Color photographs will be charged to invited authors as well. Reprints may be requested at a cost set when the galley proof is returned.

Galley proofs: Proofs will be sent to authors twice to check for typesetting accuracy. No changes to the original manuscript will be allowed at this stage.

The copyright of the articles published in the Journal is transferred from the authors to the Publisher, the Editorial Office of the Showa University Society, upon acceptance of the manuscript.
Revising of the THE SHOWA UNIVERSITY JOURNAL OF MEDICAL SCIENCES instruction to authors.
Revising requires consulting the Editorial Committee of Showa University Society and obtaining approval.
(revised January, 2019)